From: The Black Students Association and the Black Faculty

Both Black and white students at Sarah Lawrence agree upon one issue - change is imminent. The Black Students Association and Black Faculty will not let these changes occur without expressing our own desires in regard to what happens at this College. To this end, we as a unified body, presented a set of demands to the Administration on March 7, 1969. We find the following statement from the Administration in total compliance with our demands.

Note: Any further questions should be referred to the Communication Committee of the Black Students Association.
