I consider that I have met the conditions you indicated for leaving Lynd House.

This is to let you know that if the building is not released by four o'clock today, you will be suspended from College.

The terms of the suspension, and whether it will include the current year, or next year, or both, will be determined later, in each case.

Any students entering the occupied portion of Lynd House, if it has not been freed by the hour indicated, will be considered occupiers, and subject to this suspension.
